IRRIGATION BILL TO PASS, SAYS BURGESS

West Texas Will Get All It Asks For That Can Be Legitimately Given by Legislature.

West Texas will get all that it asks for and can be legitimately given by the Texas state legislature, says representative Richard F. Burgess, who is home from Austin.
Discussing his irrigation bill, he said: "We are going to pass it. We already have a favorable report from the majority."
"What of the School of Mines bill," he was asked.
"We are going to pass that, too," he replied.
He says he does not think the restricting bill will pass so as to hurt congressman Smith.
El Paso intends to ask the state legislature for an appropriation of $100,000 for an expedition to celebrate the opening of the Elephant Butte dam in 1915. "The Texas legislature cannot appropriate any money for exhibitions. The constitution of the state forbids it," said Mr. Burgess.

FLOWER SALE NETS THE BABIES $400

The Valentine flower sale given by the women of El Paso, through the courtesy of the Flower Shop, 212 Texas street, on Friday, for the "Save the Babies" fund of the Woman's Charity association, was a big success. Several of the women of the association took their autos and helped to deliver the flowers. Many of the hotels, banks and dry goods stores had booths in them from which the flowers were sold. About 60 women and girls gave their entire day to the cause. Many generous donations were given. The fund cleared about $400 from the sale.

TO FILE FRIENDLY SUIT TO DETERMINE WATER RIGHTS

Porter W. Dent, examiner for the reclamation service, who has returned to El Paso after looking into the question of water rights in the Pecos valley, says a friendly suit will be filed in the federal district court at Santa Fe, N. M., for the adjudication of water rights in Chavez and Lincoln counties.

MYSTERY IN KILLING OF NEGRO IN DOUGLAS

Election Held in Douglas on a New Charter and Who Shall Frame It.

Douglas, Ariz., Feb. 15.—Local police and the sheriff's office are completely baffled in hunting for the murderer of Edward Rango, the negro porter of a local saloon, who was shot down Thursday afternoon, while standing with a tray of drinks in his hands. Witnesses at the inquest differed so materially in the description of the man who shot him as to make it impossible for the officers to do more than arrest several suspects. Witnesses even differed as to the nationality and color of the man committing the crime, some saying he was a dark Mexican, others claiming he was an American, with a heavy growth of beard on his face. Two suspects are in jail here and one is being held in the Naco jail awaiting investigation. The saloon was crowded at the time of the shooting.
An election is being held today to decide whether Douglas shall have a new charter and if so, which 14 of 27 candidates shall draft it. The vote promises to be light, despite the fact that the public interest was greatly aroused over the situation.

POSED AS GIRL TO WORK AS DOMESTIC

Los Angeles, Calif., Feb. 15.—Vanity proved the undoing of Frank Butcher, a young German, who for 10 years had "worked out" as a domestic under the name of Miss Anna Butcher, during all of which time his disguise had never been penetrated. He is in the city jail, apparently embarrassed by the male attire loaned him by another prisoner.

When a rosy cheeked, buxom young woman entered a hair dressing establishment and ordered hair "matted," the attendant began the process of transforming the straight brunette hair into a wavy coiffure and discovered that she was working on a wig. Close inspection of her patron's face revealed a very slight stubble. Then she went hurriedly out and called a policeman.

Judge E. M. Harber, an attorney of Trenton, Mo., and one of the strongest backers for Champ Clark at Baltimore, is in El Paso on legal business. Judge Harber is a friend of Z. L. Cobb.

WOMAN IS ROBBED IN CROWDED STORE

Room of Wounded Man Robbed While He Is On Operating Table; Clerk's Valet Loses $250.

While in a crowded store in the 209 block on Mesa avenue Friday afternoon a young Mexican boy snatched a purse from Mrs. F. Reinhardt, whose residence is 1018 North Florence street. The purse contained a gold watch and a number of valuable papers.
Friday afternoon a city detective Woods located a gold watch belonging to John Fisher, which was "lifted" from his pocket on February 12.
Thursday afternoon when P. Duran, one of the wounded men brought from Columbus, N. M., by United States troops, to Hotel Dieu, was taken to the operating room of that establishment for an operation, some one entered his room and carried away $250. Gerolamo Ascarate and Victor Gomez, also among the wounded on that occasion, and who are still inmates of Hotel Dieu, were arrested.
A negro valet of Charles Clark, son of United States senator Clark, Montana copper king, complained to the police Friday night that some one had touched him for $250. P. Bridge was arrested later.

SUFFRAGETS HAVE TRAVELED 57 MILES ON THEIR HIKE

Trenton, N. J., Feb. 15.—"Corporal" Martha Klatschen was voted by the suffragist army as "the luckiest of them all." Although her feet were so painfully blistered that she was obliged to hobble, she stoutly refused to ride in the "Seout" automobile.

The survivors of the army which started from New York on Lincoln's birthday are: "Gen." Rosalie G. Jones, "Col." Ida Craft, "Corporal" Martha Klatschen, Miss Elizabeth Aldrich, Miss Augusta Righter, Mrs. John Boldt, Mrs. George Wendt of Albany; Miss Minerva E. Crowle, Miss Phoebe Haven, Miss Constance Leup of Washington, Mrs. Frank Bard, Miss Elizabeth Freeman and Mrs. Olive Schutz, the official scout. All but the three last named have marched the entire distance of 57 miles thus far accomplished.
The suffragist army failed today in their plan to emulate George Washington by crossing the ice-packed Delaware river. There were no ferries running and no bridge at hand as had been thought.
Unable to commandeer any boats or construct pontoons, the army abandoned the idea of crossing over to Bristol, Pa., and set out for Burlington, N. J.

CASTRO TO ENTER COUNTRY AT WILL

New York, N. Y., Feb. 15.—Cipriano Castro, former dictator of Venezuela, is free to come and go in this country at will. Judge Ward, in the federal district court this afternoon sustained the writ of habeas corpus in his behalf, overruling the immigration authorities.
